Pillsbury House Theatre presents the area premiere of BUG by Tracy Letts

In a seedy Oklahoma City motel room, the relationship between a divorced waitress with a fondness for cocaine and a soft spoken Gulf War drifter festers into paranoia, conspiracy theories and an infiltration of insects. "Buckle up and brace yourself for the theatre season's wildest ride," raved the New York Times of this 2004 Obie Award Winner. Directed by Stephen DiMenna.

BUG contains strong language and nudity. No one under the age of 18 will be admitted.

The Sanchez Family enjoys National Night Out, organized by the Central Weed & Seed Program.

October 6 - November 4, 2006. Tickets are $18 Thursday - Saturday and every Wednesday performance is pay-what-you-can. Performances are Wednesday - Saturday at 7:30 p.m.
Call 612-825-0459 to make reservations.

Halloween Safety Tips

Halloween is a time for fun and good memories!

- Feed children before they go out
- Send a mature person with young children
- Instruct children to bring all treats home for parents to check
- Parents know the route your kids are going
- Establish a return time
- Stay in groups
- Remain on well-lit streets, use sidewalks
- Cross streets at crosswalks
- Never cut across yards or go into alleys
- Never enter a stranger's home or car
- Carry a flashlight & cell phone
- Parents pin your address and phone # in pockets of young children
- Kids, watch out for cars
- Motorists beware of children
- If there is a question about a treat-throw it away.

Happy Haunting!
